Summary of main themes evident from lessons learnt:

- Importance of reviewing processes to ensure efficient and fit for purpose.
- Importance of staff communicating timeously, clearly and respectfully with service users and family members.
- Importance of staff adhering to the General Data Protection Regulations, ensuring proper use of systems with accurate record keeping.
- Staff need to follow Data Protection Legislation in relation to sharing personal data with third parties.

Complaints considered by the SPSO

Once a complaint has been dealt with at Stage 2 of the Complaints Handling Procedure, complainants may approach the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman (SPSO) if they remain dissatisfied. The SPSO is the final stage for complaints about public services in Scotland, including complaints about a Local Authority.

In 2019/20, the SPSO felt it appropriate to investigate 1 complaint, whereas in 2017/18 they investigated 0 complaints. Of the complaint investigated the SPSO upheld it and provided recommendations to the HSCP which were carried out. There was a further 4 complaints that went to the SPSO but they did not take these further. In 2018/19 the SPSO did not take 7 complaints received forward.
