What this document is about

In this document we have used some words that not everybody will understand. We have written these words in bold.

This is an easy read summary of the Charging Policy for Non-Residential Care Services 2022/2023.

About The Charging Policy

If you receive, care and support from a West Dunbartonshire service you may be required to contribute towards the cost of the services you receive. The services you receive will always be based on your needs and the charge will be based on your ability to pay.

Charges fall into two categories:

Non Means Tested Fixed Charges

All non-means tested charges are charged at a flat rate and are applicable to all service users who receive the services below. This is not an exhaustive list.

- Meals – Provided at Home;
- Meals – Lunch Clubs;
- Blue Badges Administration Scheme;
- Transport (Taxi or Bus);
- Community Alarms; and
- Centre Based Day Opportunities.

Means Tested (or Financially Assessed) Charges

Means Tested charges are financially accessed through an assessment.

A financial assessment is part of a suite of assessments, which is carried out to determine which services you require to meet your needs. A Social Worker or care manager will require to have proof of all income and capital held. You should therefore have available for inspection any Pension or Benefit statements, and bank or savings books relating to your financial affairs.

Are all care and support services chargeable?

Not all social care support provided to people are subject to charges. The following services are free and are not subject to a charge:

- Home Care services for 42 days on discharge from hospital;
- Care management;
- Services provided where the primary reason for service provision is to monitor children under “supervision” or children and families in crisis;

Who is exempt from being asked to pay?

- Service users presenting as homeless are exempt from charging for a period of up to 2 years or until the point that they are resettled into their accommodation;
- Services directly attributable to Carers are not chargeable;
- People who are subject to a Compulsion Order;
- Services for children (under 19 years of age); and
- People who are terminally ill.

Can I get help to make sure I am getting all the benefits I am entitled to?

All service users will be offered an Income Maximisation service at the point of assessment.

Income Maximisation allows service users to be made aware of the range of benefits they may be entitled to.

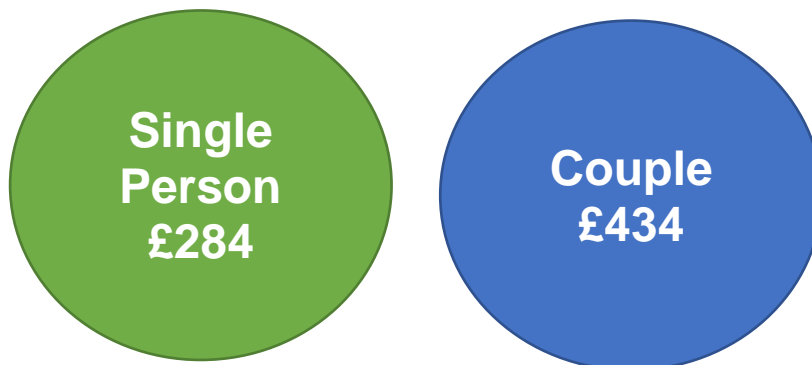

How will you know if I can afford to pay for my services?

The Charging Policy is based on guidance from the Convention of Scottish Local Authorities (COSLA) who set the level of income you can have before you are charged for your service. This is called Income Thresholds. If your weekly income is less than the Income Thresholds, then you will not be charged for your services.

The Income thresholds for a person under qualifying age 2025/2026

The Income thresholds for a person over qualifying age 2025/2026

What if my income is higher than the Threshold?

When we know, what your income is we will deduct the Threshold amount and this will tell us how much you can afford to pay.

Is all income considered in the financial assessment?

No, there is a number of sources of income, which will be disregarded within the Financial Assessment.

Income, which will be disregarded, can be found within the Non-Residential Charging Policy.

What will happen if I cannot afford to pay for the services?

If the Council is, satisfied that paying for the services would cause you genuine hardship then your social worker or care manager can seek approval from the appropriate Head of Service to reduce or stop any charges for the service.

If my care needs or my income changes what will happen?

Your financial situation and care plan will be looked at every year when we will ask you about any changes in your care needs, income, and savings. If at any time during the year there are any changes in any of your circumstances, you should let us know immediately.

What is the maximum means tested charge?

WDHSCP have taken the decision to apply a maximum weekly charge for means tested services. This is currently £90.50 per week. Fixed flat rate charges will be over and above this charge, however, the Financial Assessment will take account of any fixed charges as an outgoing expenditure.
